SOLDIERS' BALANCES UNCLAIMED.

In pursuance of the "Regimental Debts Act, 1863," notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has available, for distribution amongst the next of kin, the sum of money set opposite to the name of each of the deceased soldiers named in the list which is published with this notice in the "London Gazette" and the "Army List," and is also to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as next of kin should be addressed by letter to "The Under Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

No application can be attended to which does not state the dates and places of the soldier's birth, enlistment, and death, and the name of his regiment; his regimental number should also be stated if known.

Should these particulars furnished by the applicant not agree with the facts recorded in the War Office documents relating to the deceased soldier, the applicant will be so informed: but should they agree therewith, then within three calendar months the Secretary of State will furnish the applicant with the usual requirements needed for the proof of the alleged relationship.

The application must be authenticated by the signature of the applicant, and his name should be affixed in the presence of the clergyman, or one of the churchwardens of the parish, or a justice of the peace. The applicant's address, with the name of the post town, must also be clearly stated. No personal application can receive attention.

Further lists will from time to time be published, and therefore it will facilitate the applicant's inquiries to give the number and date of the notice in which the deceased soldier's name appeared. Dated this 16th day of January, 1869.

By Order of the said Principal Secretary,
EDWARD LUGARD.

NOTE.—A copy of this Notice is to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

FINANCE.

Cl. 11.—Pay of Staff Officers on Leave.

The Secretary of State has decided, with the concurrence of the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, that except in cases of emergency, Staff Officers will not be allowed leave with pay until they have served 10 months; 20 months' actual service being required before they are allowed leave for four months, and 30 months' actual service for six months' leave. Leave will in no case exceed one-sixth of the term of service.

Cl. 12.—African Commissariat.

1. With reference to the "Secretary of State's Instructions" appended to Clause 93, Army Circulars 1868, it is to be understood that until the two superior grades shall have been filled up, accepted candidates for the African Commissariat who already hold commissions or appointments in existing corps or departments, will not necessarily be required to enter as assistant commissaries, but may, with reference to the requirements of the service, be appointed to such higher grade in the new department as their rank and length of service shall appear to the Secretary of State to entitle them.

2. When the superior grade shall have been filled up, all candidates will enter with the rank of assistant commissary.

3. Promotion in the department will as a rule be by seniority, provided the officer be reported in all respects fit for the superior rank; but in order to ensure the necessary training and experience for the higher grades, an assistant commissary will be required to have completed at least three years', and a deputy commissary four and a half years', actual service on the coast before becoming eligible for promotion.

4. Should vacancies occur before the senior officers in each rank shall have completed this term of service, they will, if otherwise eligible, be allowed to receive the minimum pay and emoluments of the superior rank. Such pay, however, will not carry increased rank, nor will the period of its issue count towards increased pay for length of service in the superior rank.

Cl. 13.—Working Pay for Lettering Guns, Carriages, &c.

It is notified, with reference to Clause 81, Army Circulars 1868, authorizing rates of working pay for painting and cleaning ordnance, &c., that the following additional rate for lettering and numbering guns, carriages, piles of shot, &c., will be sanctioned, viz., one halfpenny for every dozen letters or numbers.

Care will be taken that only one gun, one carriage, one platform, and one pile of shot or shell in each battery be so marked, numbered or lettered.

Cl. 14.—Bread and Meat Returns, Depot Battalions.

Commanding officers of depôt battalions will cause to be prepared, and transmit monthly to the Under Secretary of State for War, a statement (on W. O. Form 804) showing the quantities of bread and meat supplied to depôts and detachments of regiments on the East India establishment.

STORES.

Cl. 15.—Regulations for the Supply of Ammunition for Practice and Exercise.

The Secretary of State has approved of amended regulations for the supply of ammunition for practice and exercise, both to the Regular and Reserve Forces. These regulations are issued with the present Army Circular to those officers whom they affect.

Cl. 16.—Losses or Deficiencies of Stores.

In case of deficiencies of stores in consequence of improper issues or other causes, the value of all losses or deficiencies of stores will in future invariably be paid to the credit of the public, instead of being replaced by the Accountant or brought to his debit on his account.

Cl. 17.—Transfer of Stores from Station to Station.

1. Stores transferred from one store station to another, except those returned to the Tower or Woolwich, will be brought on charge at the station at which they are received, in the same state as shown in the vouchers of issue.

2. In the event of stores being in a condition other than that represented in the issue voucher, the circumstance will be fully and immediately reported to this office, as well as to the officer by whom the stores were issued.

Cl. 18.—Cupolas and Martin's Shells.

1. Military Store Officers will receive from Royal Artillery charge all Cupolas and Martin's shells, and forward the same to Woolwich as opportunities offer, free of charge.

2. Military Store Officers will, however, in conjunction with the Royal Engineer Department, take care to utilize the bricks, fire-clay, and other materials belonging to the Cupolas, as far as practicable.

3. They will also take the shells out of the boxes, remove the metal plugs, knock off the wood bottoms, and transfer both boxes and bottoms to the Barrack or other Departments for fuel.

4. A reserve of these articles to the extent of—

10 Cupolas
1,000 10-inch shells.
2,500 8 ,,

will be maintained at Woolwich.

Cl. 19.—Repair of Militia Arms.

The following are the stations to which the arms of the several regiments of Disembodied Militia will in future be sent for repair:—

	Address.	Station.
English Regiments ...	Superintendent Small-Arms Factory	Birmingham.
Scotch Regiments ...	Military Store Officer	Edinburgh.

The list of stations annexed to W. O. Circular, 7 May, 1861, No. 681, is accordingly cancelled.

PRICES OF NECESSARIES.

Cl. 20.*

1. The accompanying list of prices will regulate the sums to be charged to the troops for all necessaries issued on payment on and after the 1st April next, except at those foreign stations where this Circular shall not have been received on that date, in which cases the prices contained in the Appendix to Clause 18, Army Circulars 1868, will continue in force until the receipt of the present Circular at the station. The date of such receipt will be inserted in the Kit Account.

2. The price to be charged, under the provisions of Clause 45 of Army Circulars 1867, for cholera belts lost, destroyed, or issued on repayment, will, from the 1st April next, be that quoted in the accompanying list.

3. If any articles, other than those detailed in the accompanying lists, be required on payment, a separate requisition will be forwarded for them, and they will not be included in the Annual Account of Free Kits and Regimental Necessaries. Payment for such articles will be made during the quarter in which they are received, or (in the event of their being received during the last month of the quarter) in the succeeding quarter. Care will therefore be taken that no larger quantities are at any time demanded than the regiment is prepared to pay for in the manner above prescribed.

4. Serge and duck frocks and fatigue trousers (although not articles of necessaries), and serjeants' forage caps, may be accounted for in the Annual Account of Free Kit and Regimental Necessaries.

5. Any articles of clothing which may be sold to the troops under the authority contained in paragraph 59 of the Revised Royal Clothing Warrant, 1865, will, if included in the annexed list, be charged for at the rates quoted in such list, and not at prices based on the compensation value as prescribed in the said warrant.

6. It has been decided that marine as well as yellow soap for sea kits shall henceforth be issued by the piece instead of by weight, officers commanding will be careful to include in their requisitions for sea kit necessaries the number of pieces of soap equivalent, at four pieces per pound, to the quantities prescribed by weight in paragraph 88 of the Revised Royal Clothing Warrant, 1865, for troops embarking for various foreign stations.

7. Necessaries of obsolete pattern, or articles omitted from the accompanying list, will, if on charge, be sold at the rates laid down in the most recent circular list of prices in which such articles, or patterns, may have been included.

ARMY TELEGRAPHY AND SIGNALLING.

Cl. 21.*

1. The Secretary of State for War has decided that, subject to such regulations as may be approved by him, and issued under his authority, the superintendence of the working arrangements of all permanent military telegraph stations, electric and visual, established under his authority, as well as the construction of military telegraphs, shall devolve on the Royal Engineers as one of the regular duties of the corps, subject to the general supervision of the Inspector General of Engineers and Director of Works.

2. All officers of Royal Engineers, and such non-commissioned officers and men of the corps as may be selected, will be required to go through a course of instruction in electricity and telegraphy, and in the methods of constructing telegraph lines, in the School of Military Engineering at Chatham. These officers and non-commissioned officers will be employed, when occasion requires, to superintend instruction or work at outstations.

3. The flashing system of signalling has been approved for field service, for military signal stations, and for communication between Her Majesty's ships and troops on shore, and will be introduced at all permanent signal stations, as opportunities occur, superseding the local system now in force.

4. Full details and description for working the flashing system of signals are promulgated in the new edition (1868) of the Army and Navy Signal Book, which has been prepared for field service, as well as for use at permanent signal stations, and for communication between Her Majesty's ships and troops on shore.

* See Appendix.

5. Arrangements have been made at the School of Military Engineering for the instruction in signalling of a certain number of officers and non-commissioned officers from each regiment and corps in the army, who, when duly qualified, will be employed as instructors in their regiments or corps.

6. The number and strength of these classes and the extent to which instruction will be afforded will be regulated by the Commander in Chief, regard being had to the provision made in the estimates for the purpose.

7. All telegraphs, electric and visual, at each military station, where signal stations have been established under authority, will be under the superintendence of a competent officer who has passed through the Telegraph School at Chatham, or has been proved to possess a practical knowledge of electricity as applied to, and of the instruments approved for, telegraphic purposes, and for day and night signalling (including communication with ships, as adopted for general army and naval service). The officer in charge of the telegraphs, &c., at an established signal station will, when possible, be an officer of engineers, and the duty of superintendence will form a portion of his ordinary duty, under the Commanding Royal Engineer.

8. This officer will be responsible that the line, instruments, and batteries, are in an efficient working state of repair. His supervision will extend not only to the plant but to the offices used for telegraphic purposes as regards works, repairs, &c. He will be responsible for the instruction of the non-commissioned officers and men employed in the telegraph service, for their compliance with all orders issued with reference thereto, and for the correctness of all accounts and pay lists of the same, which will be signed by him.

9. He will make all reports to the Commanding Royal Engineer at the station for the information of the officer commanding the troops, who will give such instruction as may be necessary regarding all local requirements of the telegraph service.

10. One or more non-commissioned officers, according to the requirements of each group, will, when duly authorized, be employed, under the superintending officer, as assistants. At stations at which the electric telegraph is used, the senior, at least, of these should have obtained a certificate of proficiency from the School of Military Engineering at Chatham. These non-commissioned officers should all possess a sufficient practical knowledge of electricity to be able to carry out the orders of the superintending officer; they should understand the general use of telegraph instruments, the preparation and putting together of batteries, and the use of instruments employed in testing to ascertain that everything is in good working order. They should understand the use of visual signalling apparatus as approved for naval and military purposes, and should be competent to teach signalling, both by telegraphic instruments and visual signals, to the men employed as telegraph clerks and signallers. They should ascertain, on commencing work in the morning, that the whole of the lines and apparatus under their charge are in efficient working order, and report to that effect, or give information of any defects that may exist, to the superintending officer.

11. At stations where visual signals only are employed, it is not necessary that the superintending non-commissioned officer should possess any knowledge of the electric telegraph; he should, however, hold a certificate of proficiency in visual signalling from the School of Instruction at Chatham. If a certificated signalman be not available, the superintending officer must take care that the man appointed to the charge is competent for it.

12. Signallers, telegraphic and visual, in proportion to the number of stations, and the general requirements of each group, will be employed under the authority of the Secretary of State for War as to number and rates of pay. These men should be thoroughly competent in the use of the instruments on which they operate.

13. The superintending officer will take care that the signallers are practised at intervals, when the instruments are not in use, sufficiently to ensure rapidity and accuracy in transmitting and receiving messages, and in translating into code and vice versâ.

14. A monthly return on W. O. Form No. 1462 (see Appendix) showing the proficiency of each superintending non-commissioned officer and signaller shall be sent by the superintending officer to the Commanding Royal Engineer.

15. Messengers to carry service messages, according to the requirements of the case, will be supplied by the officer commanding the troops. These will generally be orderlies from the troops in garrison.

16. The superintending officer will inspect every station periodically; the interval between such inspections to be fixed by the Commanding Royal Engineer, to whom the superintending officer will forward a monthly report of the state of everything under his charge.

17. An annual return on W. O. Form No. 1463 (see Appendix), showing the nature and construction of the several forms of instruments, batteries, &c., used, will be forwarded by the Commanding Royal Engineer to the Director of Works with the annual estimate, to enable the instruments, batteries, &c., demanded from England, to be provided. The want of precise information on the points referred to in this form has been the cause of much inconvenience and delay in the supply of demands for materials, or for repairs and extension of existing lines of telegraph.

18. Message books of the approved form, W. O. Book 119 (specimen leaf printed in Appendix), will be used at each station. The sender of a message will write it on the outer portion of the page, and sign the same. Each message sent from a station will be numbered, and will have the date and time of transmission inserted on it. Similar books will be kept at the receiving station; the message when received in code will be written down on the inner portion of the page with the number (that supplied by the sending station), time of receipt and date; when received in words it will be written likewise on the inner portion of the page, and a copy for transmission to its destination will be made therefrom on the outer portion. Every leaf of these books will be accounted for, and none torn out on any pretence whatever except for service.

19. These books will be sent to the superintending officer once a week for careful examination and collation, with a view to check signallers for errors, and as a guide for regulating their amount of working pay. A duplicate set of books will be kept at each station for this purpose.

20. Signallers, who may be in receipt of working pay, will be liable to loss of the same for carelessness or frequent mistakes.

21. The original messages received on Morse recording instruments will be translated on the inner portion of the page, and then copied for transmission on the outer portion. The original strip with the message recorded in Morse character will be sent weekly with the books to the superintending officer, and retained by him for one month for reference, after which time it may be destroyed, unless specially ordered to be retained for any particular purpose. If received on a letter type printing instrument, the message will be copied on the outer portion of the page for transmission, and afterwards copied as a record, on the inner portion, the strip being sent forward weekly with the books for comparison in the same way as the Morse strips, and also destroyed after a month, if not required.

22. Envelopes of the form shown in the Appendix (W. O. Form 1511), will be used. Receipts for telegrams will, in all cases, be taken. The receipt for telegrams on field service will invariably be acknowledged by signing the envelope, the time of receipt being filled up, and the envelope being returned by the messenger as a voucher that the telegram has been properly delivered. For ordinary or private telegrams the receipt may be given on a separate paper, W. O. Form 1466 (see Appendix). The receipts for messages will be forwarded with the books, once a week, to the superintending officer, for inspection and comparison.

23. Cash accounts, on W. O. Form 1464, will be kept at each station, wherein all messages, whether on her Majesty's service, or private, will be entered with all the details required therein, the money columns being left blank in the case of service messages. These accounts will be balanced up daily or weekly as directed by the Commanding Royal Engineers, and will be open to inspection from time to time in such manner as the Secretary of State for War may direct. All money received will be paid daily, where practicable, into the hands of the superintending non-commissioned officer, who will remit the same weekly to the superintending officer with an abstract of the sums received, on W. O. Form 1465 (see Appendix). Cash received will be paid to the military accountant at the station, once a month, and a receipt taken on W. O. Form 1465, which will then be guarded.

24. The charges for private messages will be regulated by local circumstances, on a scale drawn up by the Commanding Royal Engineer, and approved by the officer commanding at the station, subject to final approval by the Secretary of State for War. The charges should be paid by the persons sending the messages.

25. A scale for porterage for private messages according to distance and means of transmission, similarly approved, will be also established for each station; the charge for porterage will be legibly written on the envelope enclosing each message, and will be paid to and become the property of the messenger. No porterage charge, however, will be admissible for service messages, which should be carried by orderlies.

26. No private message will be transmitted until paid for.

27. The following will be the order of precedence of messages :—

I. Messages to or from, or by order of the officer commanding at the station.
II. Other official messages according to the order of priority of receipt.
III. Urgent messages relative to the working of the line.
IV. Private messages according to priority of receipt.
V. Ordinary messages relative to the working of the line.

28. All messages, official or private, transmitted or received will be kept secret. The superintending officer will hold the non-commissioned officers and signallers strictly responsible in this respect. The unauthorized revealing of messages will in all cases be reported to the Commanding Royal Engineer, and will be punished by a reduction or forfeiture of working pay, or by dismissal from the telegraph service.

29. The hours of attendance at each telegraph station will be determined, according to its requirements and relative importance, by the officer commanding at the station, who will communicate his instructions on this head to the Commanding Royal Engineer.

ARMY ADVERTISEMENTS.

(Issued as a Special Army Circular, on 7th January, 1868.)

Cl. 22.*

1. A list of the newspapers in which army advertisements may appear is printed in the Appendix.

2. No expense for advertisements inserted in unauthorized newspapers can be admitted as a charge against the public.

3. Mr. R. F. White, of 33, Fleet Street, London, is the sole agent to this office for advertisements inserted in newspapers in the United Kingdom, and advertisements for metropolitan papers will be sent direct to him for insertion.

4. Advertisements for provincial papers will be sent direct to the respective editors, who should be instructed to claim payment from Mr. White, to whom they should forward their accounts and vouchers.

5. The Lords Commissioners of her Majesty's Treasury having, in a minute dated 11th March, 1859, enjoined on the various public departments the strictest economy in the expenditure on the publication of Government advertisements, a copy of their lordships' minute is annexed (see Appendix) for the information and guidance of the several branches of the War Department, and strict attention should be paid to it.

6. W. O. Circulars 431, 654, 944 and 966 are cancelled.

* See Appendix.

RETURNS OF CIVILIANS.

Cl. 23.

The returns of civilians hitherto rendered under W. O. Circulars 863, 880 and 979 may be discontinued. The Circulars in question are hereby cancelled.

II. The officer appointed will be supernumerary to his regiment, and receive the consolidated allowance of £400 per annum, from which, if quarters are provided, £50 a year will be deducted.

III. Each application should be accompanied by such certificates as may prove the candidate's fitness for the appointment.

IV. In forwarding an application, the commanding officer should state his opinion of the character of the candidate, both personally and as an officer.

G.O. 5.—H. M. Troop Ships—complaints or suggestions as to accommodation, &c. (Quarter Master General.)

I. To obviate the inconvenience which has arisen from time to time in consequence of officers commanding troops embarked in her Majesty's troop ships making reports to the Quarter Master General, unknown to the captain of the vessel, containing complaints or suggestions in respect to the arrangements made for the accommodation of the troops on board, it is directed that in future whenever a commanding officer of troops on board one of her Majesty's troop ships considers it desirable to make any complaint or suggestion, he should in the first place communicate with the captain of the ship, after which, should it still be expedient to make any representation to head quarters, he should furnish the captain with a copy of his report before leaving the vessel; handing the original immediately on landing to the officer commanding at the port of disembarkation, for transmission by him at once to the Quarter Master General, Horse Guards.

GEN. ORDERS—continued.

II. His Royal Highness, while always glad to receive suggestions from commanding officers which may tend to the benefit of troops on board ship, feels assured that it is hardly necessary to point out to them how desirable it is that they should avoid making frivolous complaints which only cause bad feeling as well as unnecessary correspondence and loss of valuable time.

III. Commanding officers are reminded of the importance of making themselves thoroughly acquainted with those parts of the regulations which relate to duties on board ship.

G.O. 6.—Field Exercise and Evolutions of the Army.

The following alterations will be made in S. 13, Part II., and S. 1, 2, Part VII. :—

1. Marching past in open column in quick time.

On the word "Forward, by the right" on entering the saluting alignment, the officers will "recover" swords, and move out in double time to their places as at open order in front of the company; each taking up the quick time and bringing his sword to the "carry" as he arrives at his place; the covering serjeant will move up on the right of the company and lead it, the rear and supernumerary ranks will not lock up.

When at ten paces from the saluting point the officers will salute as follows (taking the time from the captain):

As the left foot leaves the ground, bring the sword with a circular motion to the "recover" during two paces; on the following pace, lower it to the salute (edge of the blade in line with the knee, the arm to be straight, hand just behind the thigh, the left arm to remain steady), the head to be turned to the reviewing officer while passing him.

When at six paces beyond the saluting point, the officers will come to the "recover," make a pause of one pace, and on the following pace come to the "carry." When at twenty paces they will resume their places with the company, the captain turning to the right, the lieutenant and ensign to the left, the ensign moving in double time; the covering serjeant taking post at the same time.

2. Marching past in Grand Divisions.

As each grand division is formed, the officers will take post at open order in front of their respective companies.

The salutes will be given as laid down for a battalion in open column, the officers of each grand division taking the time from the officer nearest the saluting point.

The officers will remain in front until ordered by the commanding officer to take post with their companies.

G.O. 7.—Transfer of Soldiers.

I. Officers commanding will require all recruits, on joining, to furnish a statement of the names of their brothers, specifying whether they are older or younger than themselves, and these particulars are to be entered in the soldier's small book.

II. No soldier, hereafter enlisted, will be transferred to serve with an elder brother, unless such brother's description shall correspond with the above entry.

G.O. 8.—Medals—Good Conduct.

I. Instances having occurred where commanding officers have postponed recommending soldiers qualified to receive good conduct medals, in order to obtain for them a larger gratuity in subsequent years, it is directed that the instructions contained in paragraph 1,885 of the Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army may be strictly adhered to, with a view to all the medals and gratuities for each year being appropriated.

II. Commanding officers are to forward to the Adjutant General, on the 1st of April in each year, a nominal statement of the men eligible for good conduct medals, together with the dates on which they fulfilled the required conditions, and also of those who are likely to become eligible during the year.

G.O. 9.—Canteens. (Quarter Master General).

With reference to G. O. 97 of 1868, the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief has decided that colour sergeants are to be included in the list of non-commissioned officers who are ineligible to undertake the duties of canteen sergeant.

In the event of any colour serjeant being so employed, immediate steps are to be taken for his removal.

GEN. ORDERS—continued.

G.O. 10.—Officers' Dress—Rifle Regiments.

Peaks to forage caps are not to be worn by officers of rifle regiments.

G.O. 11.—Officers' Dress—Medical.

Referring to G. O. 79 of 1868,—patterns of the dress pouch-belt and sword-belt for medical officers have now been sealed and are deposited at the Horse Guards, for general information and guidance.

These belts will be worn by officers below the rank of Deputy Inspector General of Hospitals only on the occasions referred to in the G. O. above quoted.

The following is a description of the belts:—

For medical officers ranking with Brigadiers and Major Generals:—

Four rows of gold embroidery ¼ inch wide on black morocco shoulder-belt, gilt chased buckle and slide (no breast ornament). Pouch of black morocco leather, flap 6½ inches wide, 3¼ inches deep, and pointed,—with three rows of ¼ inch gold embroidery,—gilt chased V. R. and crown ornament.

Sword-belt, black morocco leather with three rows of gold embroidery ¼ inch wide on the waist-belt and three rows $\frac{3}{16}$ inch on the slings; gilt chased clasp with silver lion and crown.

For officers ranking under Brigadiers:—

Three rows of gold embroidery on the pouch-belt, and two on the pouch and sword-belt as above described.

G.O. 12.—Army Reserve.

The returns prescribed in paragraph II. of G. O. 90 of 1868, need not be sent in when there are no volunteers for the Army Reserve. A report to that effect, by letter to the Adjutant General, at the commencement of each quarter, is sufficient.

G.O. 13.—Musketry.

I. The annexed return (Appendix A.), showing the corps in the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, and in the Dominion of Canada, which have completed a course of musketry instruction for the year 1868-9, with their "figure of merit;" the per centages of men in 1st and 3rd classes in shooting; of those in the 1st class in judging distances, and of non-exercised men; also the results of the independent and skirmishing practices in the infantry, and of the mounted practice in the cavalry, and the best shooting troops and companies, is published for general information and guidance.

II. While it is gratifying to the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief to find that the shooting of the several corps, as shown in the following table, as a whole has considerably improved,—

Year.	Number of Battalions whose Shooting is			Total.
	Very Good.	Good.	Moderate.
1867—8	40	25	10	75
1868—9	72	14	Nil	86

it still appears that sufficient care is not bestowed in executing the independent practice.

III. In many instances the average is "bad," and in the majority of cases is below the standard indicating "good" firing, as given at page 75 of the Musketry Regulations. In the 29th and 69th Regiments, which have made the lowest averages, the time taken (1′58″ and 1′49″ respectively) leads to the inference that the practice had been hurried over, and that more attention had been paid to celerity than to accuracy.

IV. The results of the mounted practice in the cavalry and of the skirmishing in the infantry are, on the whole, good.

V. The number of non-exercised men, as shown in many of these returns and in the confidential reports of general officers commanding districts, is excessive. It should never at the utmost exceed five per cent. of the strength. In the corps specified in the margin* it is very low, being under two per cent., and his Royal Highness sees no reason why it should be higher in others.

VI. The best shooting company of the corps in the annexed list is D Company, 1st Battalion 21st Fusiliers, with the hitherto unattained score of 172·56. The best shot is No. 3712, Sergeant C. Rogers, 62nd Regiment, who made 67, 68, and 60 points in the 3rd, 2nd and 1st classes respectively. The best judge of distances is Color Sergeant Wm. Meadows, 4th Battalion 60th Rifles, who obtained 26 points in the 1st class.

VII. The annual returns of the 2nd Battalions 14th and 18th Regiments were not received in time to appear in the last annual report on the progress of musketry training in the Army. A return of their performance in 1867-8 is therefore appended to the annexed list, and it shows the position they would have occupied in the figure of merit table for that year.

G.O. 14.—Prizes for Sword and Lance Practice.

I. The annexed return (Appendix B.) showing the results of the last annual competition in the cavalry for the rewards for good sword and lance practice, is circulated for general information.

II. The per-centages to strength of the whole are as follows, viz. :—

Of men competing	70·43
Of men who did not pass preliminary examination ...	4·87
Of men not qualified to compete	24·68
Of prize holders	4·62

G.O. 15.—Effects of Deceased Soldiers.

A general impression appearing to prevail among soldiers that the persons designated as the next of kin in the column set apart for that purpose in their small books will be entitled at their death to inherit their property, it is hereby notified that the entry in question has no legal effect whatever, and that unless a soldier duly executes a formal will his estate is dealt with as if he died intestate, and the person intended to be benefited may receive little or no share in the distribution.

By Command,
W. PAULET, Adj. Gen.

* 13th Hussars, 2nd Battalion 3rd Foot, 2nd Battalion 18th Foot, 1st and 2nd Battalions 17th Foot, 27th, 28th, 34th, 45th, 56th, 62nd, 66th, 67th, 81st, 98th, and Boyal Canadian Regiments.

Regulations respecting Foreign Orders.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's Dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.
If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.
A similar reference shall also be made to the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.
When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's license and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Regulations respecting Foreign Medals.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British Subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which, they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Permission to wear a Foreign Medal cannot be granted to a British Subject, unless such Medal is bestowed for military or naval services performed by the command or with the sanction of Her Majesty. But no permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

FINANCE.

Cl. 24.—Pay of Company Serjeants of Royal Artillery and Royal Engineers.

1. The rule laid down in article 3, page 3 of the Artillery Finance Regulations of 1850 will in future be strictly observed in the Royal Artillery and Royal Engineers.

2. The following ranks of non-commissioned officers must therefore be borne on the strength of their batteries or companies as serjeants, and mustered as such to entitle them to receive the pay of their rank:—

Battery Serjeant Major „ Quarter Master Serjeant	R. A.	Troop Serjeant Major „ Quarter Master Serjt.	R.E. Train.
Colour Serjeant	R. E.

3. The difference of pay between that of serjeant and that of the above ranks will be issued to the non-commissioned officers actually performing the higher duty.

Cl. 25.—Conveyance of Soldiers' Children.

1. Conveyance will not be granted at the public expense to soldiers' sons above fourteen years of age, or to soldiers' daughters above sixteen years.

2. Cases, however, in which destitution would be the result of girls above this age being left behind on the embarkation of their parents, may be referred to the Quarter Master General for the special consideration of the Secretary of State for War, as also the cases of boys suffering from mental or bodily infirmity.

3. Soldiers' unmarried daughters returning to their homes from foreign stations, when the family is entitled to conveyance at the public expense under the regulations, will be granted passages without any limit as to age; and railway conveyance from the port of disembarkation to their homes will likewise be provided for them at the public expense.

4. Clause 65 Army Circulars, 1868, is hereby cancelled.

Cl. 26.—Remittances.

The duplicate copies of the monthly returns of remittances (on War Office Forms 327 and 327*a*) transmitted to this office, under instructions in 3rd paragraph of W. O. Circular No. 452, dated 2nd August, 1859, are not now required, but one copy of each return should be punctually rendered at the termination of each month.

Cl. 27.—Duplicates of Departmental Accounts.

No charge will be allowed against the public for binding the duplicate departmental accounts retained at the various stations. They may be destroyed after they have been kept five years.

STORES.

Cl. 28.—Return of Empty Barrels and Copper Hoops into Store.

1. Officers commanding regiments and corps will be careful to return into store, without delay, the surplus empty cartridge and powder barrels and copper hoops in their possession.

2. The empty barrels and hoops will be sent by officers commanding to the nearest military store depôt, if possible free of cost; but if the depôt be distant, and expense would have to be incurred for conveyance, they will be delivered into the charge of the barrack master at the station.

3. At stations where facilities do not exist for forwarding these stores free of cost to Woolwich and Purfleet respectively, the store officer or barrack master will forward them by the cheapest mode of conveyance; the serviceable cartridge barrels to Woolwich, and the serviceable powder barrels and copper hoops to Purfleet, care being taken that the hoops are not bent or otherwise put out of shape.

Cl. 29.—Stores in Transit.

Much inconvenience having arisen in the examination of accounts of "Transit Stores," appended to store ledgers in accordance with W. O. Circular 589, the following rules will be observed in future, and the Circular in question is hereby cancelled.

1. In all cases where stores are consigned to military store officers "in transit" for other departments or persons, such stores will be included in a "transit list" at the end of the store ledgers.

2. The "transit list" will state the date of the receipt and issue of the stores, and will refer to the numbers of the vouchers detailing them.

3. The packages and loose articles only will be shown in the "transit list."

4. In issuing the stores to the department or person for whom they are intended, delivery and receipt vouchers will be made out by the military store officer, and the vouchers will show the stores in detail as given in the bills of lading; but in posting the receipt voucher the packages and loose articles only will be entered, thus:—

Cl. 31.—Bedding to be Weighed.

1. Departmental officers when receiving into their charge, or issuing to the troops, barrack or hospital bedding, will have the same carefully weighed, in order to ascertain that it contains the regulated quantity of hair. In case of any deficiency, the circumstance will be forthwith reported to the Local Controller, with a view to such enquiry as may be deemed necessary.

2. The report will specify from what source the bedding was received, the date of receipt, the number or distinguishing mark of each bale, and the regulation, as well as the actual, weight of each article contained therein.

G.O. 16.—Duties on board Ship. (Quarter Master General.)

I. The Field Marshal Commanding in Chief having had under his consideration the existing rules for regulating the duties of troops on board ship in respect to guards and watches, has, with the concurrence of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty in regard to Her Majesty's troop ships, decided upon introducing the system hereinafter laid down, in lieu of that prescribed in paragraphs 1244-5 of the Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, which are hereby cancelled.

WATCHES.

II. With a view to the general health and accommodation of the troops, all the non-commissioned officers and men on board each ship, exclusive of those detailed for guard duties, are to be divided, at the discretion of the commanding officer, into three watches, one of which is to be constantly on deck, with at least one subaltern officer in charge, when practicable. In fine weather every man is to be on deck during the day.

III. The watches will go on duty for twelve hours, and be relieved at 8 o'clock, a.m., and 8 o'clock p.m. By this means the troops told off for each watch will take their turn of duty by day and by night alternately.

IV. In the case of a regiment of ten companies embarked, each watch will thus consist of three companies, the tenth company being detailed for the permanent guard referred to below. In the case of mixed detachments, commanding officers must exercise their discretion in apportioning the troops to the various watches and guards on the principle herein detailed.

GUARDS AND SENTRIES.

V. A guard, the strength of which is to be in proportion to the number of the soldiers embarked and to the number of armed sentries required for the security of the vessel and the maintenance of order on board, is to be furnished by the troops.

VI. In the case of a regiment of infantry embarked, the following arrangement is to be adopted in carrying out the guard duties:—A strong company is to be selected by the commanding officer, and to be specially detailed for guard duty, either for the whole period of the voyage or for a week at a time, at the discretion of the commanding officer. The company selected is to be relieved from all other duties on board, and to be berthed separately in a convenient part of the ship. In H.M. troop ships the after part of the lower deck appropriated to troops, will be found suited to this purpose. The company to be told off into as many reliefs as possible for each post, and the sentries to be relieved every two hours.

VII. When the weekly turn of guard is adopted the relief of the whole guard should take place at eight o'clock, a.m., on Saturday morning.

VIII. In harbour and at sea, in fine weather, the guard is to be exercised with arms previously to marching off. In harbour, the sentries upon deck are to mount with their arms; at sea, with their bayonets only.

G.O. 17.—Medals—New Zealand.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to command that a medal shall be prepared to commemorate the services of Her Majesty's forces engaged in the various military operations in New Zealand, during the years 1845-6-7, 1860-1-2-3-4-5-6; and to direct, that one of the said medals shall be conferred on every surviving officer, non-commissioned officer and soldier of the regular forces, who actually served in the field against the enemy in New Zealand during the periods alluded to, excluding those who may have been dismissed for subsequent misconduct, or who have deserted and are absent.

Claims for the medal in question are to be addressed to the Adjutant General of the Forces, Horse Guards.

All officers and soldiers who consider they have a claim to receive such medal are to apply in the following manner, viz.:—

General officers, direct to the Adjutant General.

Staff officers, through the general officer under whom they served, if such general officer be alive,—if not alive, direct to the Adjutant General.

Regimental officers, who are on half pay or who have left the service, through the officer commanding the regiment or detachment under whom they served at the time, if such commanding officer be now alive. (This can be ascertained by inquiry at the regimental agents in London.) If he be not alive, direct to the Adjutant General.

Regimental officers and men now serving, through their respective commanding officers.

Pensioners, through the staff officers of their districts.

Men who have purchased, or otherwise taken their discharge, direct to the Adjutant General.

All applications to be made according to the form, Appendix A.

G.O. 18.—Medals—Abyssinia.

The Queen having been graciously pleased to command that a medal, in commemoration of the successful operations in Abyssinia, shall be conferred upon her Majesty's British and Indian forces who served in that country between the 4th October, 1867, and the 19th April, 1868, including those who were employed on board ship, in transports or in hospital, on that coast, officers commanding regiments and corps, and heads of departments at home, will cause nominal lists of officers, non-commissioned officers and men, who may be entitled to receive such decoration, to be prepared in duplicate, according to the form, Appendix B, and forwarded to the Adjutant General.

Staff officers who may be at home will forward applications direct to the Adjutant General.

G.O. 19.—Rank.

The following revised rules, defining the relative position of officers holding local rank or temporary rank, with those having permanent rank, are promulgated for general information and guidance, and are to be substituted for paragraphs 25 and 31 of the Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, which are hereby cancelled.

1. Local rank carries with it within the command or country in which it has effect, the same advantages of precedence and command as permanent rank.

2. Officers having permanent rank shall take precedence of all those serving with them having temporary rank of the same grade.

3. Colonels appointed to act temporarily as major generals shall take rank among themselves, while so acting, according to the dates of their commissions as colonels.

They shall rank as junior to all permament major generals, but as senior to all brigadier generals, who will in like manner take rank and precedence among themselves according to the dates of their commissions as colonels.

G.O. 20.—Schools.

When soldiers' school examination books are not completely filled, they are in all cases of transfer between depôt and service companies, or from one corps to another, to accompany the men, and to be made available for use in the schools of their new corps.

G.O. 21.—Musketry.

Par. 23, p. 16, of the Musketry Regulations is cancelled. The Royal Engineers, with the exception of the companies employed upon the ordnance survey, are annually to undergo the full course of musketry instruction.

G.O. 22.—Records.

Every circumstance which in any way affects a soldier's pay or service, is in future to be published in regimental orders, as soon as possible after its occurrence, for the information and guidance of all concerned.

G.O. 23.—Returns.

Referring to paragraph 1482 of the Queen's Regulations, the half-yearly return of camp equipage, &c., on W.O. Form 412, is no longer required to be sent to the Quarter Master General, but will be rendered locally to departments, in accordance with W.O. Circular 868, dated 17th June, 1864.

The half-yearly reports on newly introduced articles of equipment and stores need only be forwarded to the Adjutant General and Quarter Master General respectively, in cases where such articles have been received during the preceding six months.

G.O. 24.—Recruiting.

The minimum height for all infantry recruits, whether enlisted at head quarters or otherwise, is raised from 5 feet 7 inches to 5 feet 8 inches until further orders.

G.O. 25.—Recruiting.

Difficulty being sometimes found in disposing of harmless insane soldiers, in consequence of their parish not being clearly specified, officers approving attestations will see that the parish of the recruit is described as fully as possible on the attestation.

There is often in large towns more than one parish of the same name, as, for instance, Christchurch, London. In such cases the parish should be described, as—Christchurch, Marylebone; Christchurch, Westminster; Christchurch, Hoxton, &c., &c.

G.O. 26.—Routes.—(Quarter Master General.)

Referring to the instructions promulgated by the Secretary of State for War in Army Circular, 1868, Clause 29, in regard to the disposal of routes for the movement of troops at home, general officers commanding are requested to discontinue the practice of furnishing duplicates or copies of district routes in cases where the originals may have been lost or mislaid. When, however, they are applied to by commanding or other officers for duplicates or copies of such routes to serve as vouchers for paymaster's accounts, a memorandum, not on the printed route form, may be furnished in each case, setting forth full particulars of the orders inserted in the original route.

G.O. 27.—Correspondence.—(Quarter Master General.)

With reference to paragraph 1474 of the Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, general and other officers commanding are informed that the instructions contained in various parts of section 18, regarding the transmission to the Quarter Master General of reports and applications on subjects connected with military lands, barracks and barrack allowances, are applicable to home stations only. At foreign stations the course prescribed in paragraph 1475 will be followed.

By command,
W. PAULET, Adj. Gen.
